Powerball Winner Collects $25,000 With Power Play

Karen Kluesner of Marion

A Marion woman turned an extra $1 on her Powerball ticket purchase into an additional $20,000!

Karen Kluesner of Marion won $25,000 in the April 7 Powerball drawing. She purchased her ticket at Kum & Go, 3550 7th Ave. in Marion.

Kluesner's take home from the drawing would have normally been $5,000, but since she chose to play the Power Play, she multiplied her prize by five times—making her winnings $25,000 instead!

Don't forget to ask players if they want the Power Play—remember, players can increase their prizes with the Power Play (except the jackpot) up to five times. 🎉

Deadline to Enter Bonus Spin is May 11

Players have a second chance to win when they enter the $25,000 Instant Bonus Spin contest through May 11. To enter, players send in $5 or more worth of nonwinning tickets from current Iowa Lottery scratch games to the lottery in a special pink second-chance envelope. The list of current games eligible for this contest was printed in the March 22 "Lottery Action" and may also be found on the lottery's web site at www.ialottery.com. One drawing on May 13 remains. For more details, see the brochure. 🎉

Winterset Man Collects $50,000, Second Big Lottery Prize

Tom Losee doesn't win $50,000 every day. He's averaging one big win every six years.

Losee, 52, of Winterset won $50,000 playing the "Red Hot 7s" scratch game. He purchased his ticket at Kum & Go, 916 Guthrie in DeSoto.

He claimed his prize at Iowa Lottery headquarters in Des Moines.

"My wife was coming to get my car to change the oil, and I had a scratch ticket there that I'd just started scratching. I thought, 'I'd better finish scratching that before she gets my car.' It was the $50,000 ticket," he said. And, he didn't know for sure how long the ticket had been sitting on the front seat!

"I called [my wife], and she didn't believe me, like the last ticket. She had me convinced all the way down here on the last one it was not a winner," he said.

"No, I just said wait 'till we get there to make sure it's a winner," Deloris Losee interjected. "I don't get my hopes up."

Tom Losee of Winterset

Tom previously won $52,000 in May 1998 playing the $2 "Weekly Grand" scratch game. That win put $1,000 per week in his pocket for one year.

Tom said he invested a lot of his first prize money. He has a better way to spend his money this time around.

"If I could get [Deloris] on an airplane we'd go to Hawaii, but she's never flown," he said. "I was there in '70, but I wasn't there very long, just passing through." Tom visited Hawaii briefly while serving in the military.

Tom is glad he finally scratched his winning ticket.

"[Deloris] would've probably just thrown the ticket away," he said.

"No, I would have left it . . .," she said. "I know better."

The Losees laughed. 🤔

Algona Woman Dances at Grocery After $50,000 Win

Bernice Gorham, 70, of Algona celebrated her lottery win by dancing in the aisle at the grocery store where she bought and scratched the winning ticket.

Gorham won $50,000 playing the "Red Hot 7s" scratch game. She purchased her ticket at Hy-Vee, 1500 Hwy. 169 N. in Algona.

"I just went out to get some buns and walked by [the ticket vending machine] and thought, 'Oh, I'll put $5 in,' and guess what?" she said.

Gorham then went on with her shopping. She was in the bread aisle picking up some hamburger buns when she scratched her ticket.

"I ran and got a friend [who worked at the store] and I said, 'Would you check this because I don't believe it,' and

Manchester Farmer Reaps $100,000 Playing Powerball

Mark Sheppard is happy he won big in a recent Powerball drawing. He just wishes it could have been bigger!

Sheppard, 34, of Manchester, won $100,000 in the April 17 Powerball drawing. He claimed his prize at the Iowa Lottery's regional office in Cedar Rapids.

"I went online and I punched my numbers in. It popped up '$100,000' and I about fell out of my chair!" Sheppard happily recalls. "But if I would have done the Power Play ... I can't [think about that]!" he laughed.

If Sheppard had chosen to play the Power Play, he would have won $500,000 because the Power Play multiplier was 5 for that drawing. Players can increase their prizes with the Power Play (except the jackpot) up to five times.

Before the Powerball drawing, the Power Play wheel is spun. Slots on the wheel list the numbers 2 through 5, indicating the amount prizes (except the jackpot) will be multiplied if that number is drawn.

Although he didn't hit as big as he would have liked, Sheppard still has big plans for his winnings.

"I've got so many things that I want to do. I'd like to take a nice vacation, but ... I just don't know what I want to do first," he said. "The only thing I can think of right away is a new vehicle of some kind - probably a truck. I don't need to rush out and spend it all at once."
